MOONLIGHT TRIP ON RIVER.

Excursion Given by Hibernians Declared an Unqualified Success. Members of Division No. 3, Ancient Order of Hibernians, returned late last night from the moonlight trip down the river on the steamer St. Johns, all agreeing that the trip had been the most successful of the annual affairs of the division. Several thousand persons took the forty-mile river ride, and the death and sick benefit fund was materially increased by the income from the affair. Playing of old-time Irish melodies and dancing on the deck were features of the entertainment. The members of the ex-cursion committee, who received many congratulations on the success of their arrangements, were D. F. Manning, chairman; Richard A. Curtin, secretary; James J. Breen, E. L. Cogan, Bryan Connors, John P. Clancy, Patrick Ken-nedy, E. S. Maloy, sr., E. S. Maloy, jr., and John J. Breen.
